The definition of data management related to personal data includes any operation or set of operations which is performed on personal data, such as recording, storage, consultation, use, disclosure, transmission, erasure or destruction. In course of the management of the personal data Medicare takes the necessary and appropriate measures to prevent unauthorized access to the personal data and the unauthorized use thereof.

Therefore, in particular Medicare ensures the physical protection of its facilities (e.g. through the operation of entry and camera system) and the protection against unauthorized access of its electronic systems (e.g. through the use of firewalls, secure authentication).

The personal data managed by Medicare may be accessed by its employees and contributors, to the extent necessary to fulfil their tasks and to the provision of services to you, subject to confidentiality obligation. In addition, Medicare may transfer the data managed by Medicare to third parties, e.g. to authorities, in order to fulfil its legal obligations. Data may be transferred in order to provide services to you (e.g. in case of the use of external service providers), as well as if Medicare employs any data processor for certain data management operations (e.g. data storage, systematization), which data processor shall act on behalf and according to the instructions of Medicare. Also in case of the latter data management Medicare ensures that the personal data are transferred only to those data processors which provide appropriate guarantees for ensuring the security of the data management and your personal data.

2. Which personal data are managed by Medicare?

Below you may find general information on the data managements of different purposes of Medicare. If you wish to receive customized information, e.g. regarding the exact recipient Medicare had transmitted your personal data and when it did so, then please send your request to the following e-mail address: data.protection@medicover.hu.

3. Information you should know about cookies

A. What are cookies?

A cookie is a small data which is put on your device (computer, telephone, tablet) when visiting or browsing a website.

Cookies could serve various purposes. Most commonly, cookies collect data on the use and traffic of the website visited in order to improve the user experience, and in the interest of placing targeted advertisements.

Cookies are not suitable for identifying the visitor of the website personally, they are suitable solely for recognizing the device (computer, telephone, tablet) of the visitor. Cookies are also not suitable for running programmes or viruses.

B. For which purposes and what kind of cookies are used by the websites operated by Medicare?

Medicare uses cookies on the following websites which are operated by Medicare:

- medicover.hu
- medicoverdiagnosztika.hu
- medicoverkorhaz.hu
- medicoverszuleszet.hu
- hirek.medicover.hu
- cafeteria.medicover.hu
- mysurgeryabroad.com, and
- online.medicover.hu

In respect of the above websites, Medicare uses the following external cookies originating from third parties, i.e. cookies which were created not by Medicare but by an external service provider.

Cookie	Function of the cookie and the data collected by the cookie
Google Adwords cookies	These cookies collect data about the visits to the websites of Medicare (e.g. the sub-sites visited). For remarketing purposes, i.e. these cookies allow targeted Medicare advertisements to be displayed for you on other websites, based on your visits to the websites of Medicare.

Google Analytics cookies	These cookies collect statistical data on the visits to the websites of Medicare in order to prepare analyses on the use and traffic of the websites (e.g. subs-sites visited, number of visitors, their approximate geographic location, etc.). Medicare uses the statistical data obtained through the Google Analytics service about the traffic and the use of the website for developing the websites of Medicare.
Facebook cookies	These cookies collect statistical data on the use of the websites of Medicare as well (e.g. subs-sites visited), in order to allow targeted Medicare advertisements to be displayed for you on the surface of Facebook.

You may find further information about the above cookies on the following websites:

Firefox

Microsoft Internet Explorer

However, if you block the cookies, the Medicare websites may function not as planned and not optimally in your browser.

4. Which rights may be exercised related to the management of personal data?

You have the right to:

- information, access to your personal data, request copies
- the rectification of your personal data,
- withdraw your consent granted to the data management, the erasure of your personal data, i.e. 'to be forgotten',
- object to the data management,
- restrict the data management, - data portability, and
- legal remedy.

A. Right to information

In addition to the information detailed in Section 2, using the contact details provided in Section 1, you may request specific information related to you from Medicare regarding whether Medicare manages any of your personal data, for which purpose and on what legal basis, for how long, as well as you may request information as to how Medicare obtained your personal data, whether Medicare transferred or provided access to the personal data to any third party, and if yes, then to whom, when, for what purpose. You may also request concrete information on your rights related to the data management. Medicare provides the information for free, however, where requests from a data subject are manifestly unfounded or excessive, in particular because of their repetitive character, then – using the opportunity provided by the applicable law – Medicare may (taking into account the administrative costs of providing the information or communication or taking the action requested) charge a reasonable fee or may refuse to act on the request for information.

You may request to be provided with the copy made of your personal data, in electronic or other (in particular paper) format, as consideration of which – using the opportunity provided by the applicable law – Medicare may charge a reasonable fee (based on administrative costs).

Medicare will fulfil with your request for information while respecting the rights of others (in particular the trade secret and the right to the protection of intellectual property).

B. Right to rectification

If you become aware that any of your personal data (therefore in particular e.g. contact data, e-mail address, telephone number) managed by Medicare and stored in its system is incorrect (e.g. due to typo) or incomplete, then upon your request sent to the contact details specified in Section 1, Medicare will amend your incomplete personal data in its systems, and will rectify your incorrect personal data. In addition, Medicare will also notify all those third parties of the rectification to whom Medicare transferred your personal data, except if it is impossible or would require disproportionate effort.

C. Withdrawal of the consent granted to the data management; right to erasure, 'to be forgotten'

You may withdraw your consent to the data management granted at any time, which however does not affect the lawfulness of the data management preceding the withdrawal.

If you withdraw your consent to the data management granted and

- there is no other legal basis for the data management, or
- the purpose of the data management ceased, or
- if the data management is unlawful, or
- the data shall be erased under the law, then upon your request sent to the contact details specified in Section 1, Medicare will erase your personal data from its systems or will destruct your personal data permanently. In addition, Medicare will also notify all those third parties of the erasure to whom Medicare transferred your personal data, except if it is impossible or would require disproportionate effort.

D. Right to object

If the data management is based on the legitimate interest of Medicare or any other third party, then you have the right to object to the data management through the contact details specified in Section 1, in which case Medicare will no longer manage your personal data, except if the data management is justified by any compelling legitimate ground.

E. Restriction of the data management

Through the contact details specified in Section 1, you may request the restriction of the data management related to your personal data, in which case Medicare may only store your personal data without using those or carrying out further data management operations (e.g. transfer, erasure); the latter may occur during the restriction only if you granted your consent thereto, if those are necessary for exercise or defence of legal claims or for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person or for reasons of important public interest of the Union or of a Member State. In addition, Medicare will also notify all those third parties of the restriction to whom Medicare transferred your personal data, except if it is impossible or would require disproportionate effort.

You may request the restriction of the data management if

- with regard of your opinion the accuracy of your personal data, and you do not want your personal data to be used by Medicare until those are rectified, or
- in your opinion, the data management is unlawful, or
- the purpose of the data management carried out by Medicare ceased, however, you do not want your data to be erased, because you need those for e.g. lodging, defending or enforcing your legal claim.

You may request the restriction simultaneously with the objection to the data management based on the legitimate interest of Medicare or any other third party, in which case the restriction shall apply until the assessment of the request for objection at the latest.

F. Data portability

If the data management is based on your consent, or if data management is necessary for the fulfilment of the contract concluded with you, or if the data management is carried out by automated means, then through the contact details specified in Section 1, you may request that solely those personal data which you provided to Medicare and which are related to you be transferred in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format to you or another data controller specified by you, and in case of data concerning health, subject release from medical confidentiality. Medicare will comply with your request for information while respecting the rights of others (in particular the trade secret and the right to the protection of intellectual property).

5. How can you enforce the rights related to data management?

You may submit your inquiry or request for exercising your rights related to the data management detailed above to the contact details specified in Section 1. Please provide at least two of your personal data in your request, with which Medicare can identify you (e.g. name and telephone number, name and e-mail address). You may make your request or observation verbally as well, via the telephone number specified in Section 1, however, Medicare will in any case reply or provide information in writing (primarily in the form chosen by you, or in the absence thereof, subject to the discretion of Medicare, electronically via e-mail or on paper, by mail). In your written request (submitted via e-mail or on paper), please specify in which form you would like to receive the reply (electronically via e-mail or on paper, by mail), otherwise Medicare will forward the reply to you in the form consistent with your request. Medicare will provide a reply on the merits of your request or inquiry related to data management within 30 days of the receipt thereof, or within 60 days in exceptional cases (e.g. considering the complexity of the request). In the latter case Medicare will notify you separately of the extension of the deadline for reply and the reasons for the extension, within 1 month of the receipt of the request.

A. I am not of legal age yet; how should I proceed?

If you are not 16 years old yet, then you may enforce the rights detailed above with the approval of your legal representative – i.e. most commonly your parent who exercises the parental rights. If you are over the age of 16 but below the age of 18, then you may grant consent to the data management independently, however, you may exercise the rights detailed above only with the approval of your legal representative, i.e. most commonly your parent who exercises the parental rights.

B. Which rights may be exercised related to the personal data of deceased relatives?
